1. A large Soviet military camp was observed on 27 July 1952, in the vicinity of the state collective farm between Csapód (X92) and Iván (X81).¹
2. It is thought that the troops in this tent camp are a segment of a larger Soviet force, estimated to be 35,000, which moved into this area around 20 July 1952.²
3. Two Hungarian policemen, who tried to protect women in Csapód (X92), were killed by Soviet troops.

25X1

1. Comment: This is the first report on Soviet troops at this location. It is known that units of the 17th Guards Mechanized Division are located in Szombathely and in the surrounding villages. The camp near Csaped might very well be the new location of a unit (or units) subordinate to the 17th Guards Mechanized Division.

25X1

2. Comment: The number 35,000 is highly questionable. Nothing is known of such a large scale Soviet movement of troops into Western Hungary. However, according to persistent rumors, the Soviet headquarters of occupation forces in Austria has been moved to Hungary, presumably to Szombathely
